Evening Breeze CANOPI

The award winning Evening Breeze CANOPI ensures your perfect sleeping environment. The stylish and easy to use remote enables you to select the desired sleeping climate. According to your wishes the air is cooled, dehumidified and filtered, to provide you an optimal sleeping climate. The design of all Evening Breeze products makes them absolutely silent and draft free, ensuring your peaceful night.

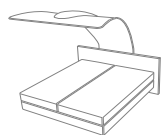

Save up to 80% of energy

Using the Evening Breeze bed climate system instead of the conventional air conditioner saves you 60% to 80% on your air conditioning's energy use. This is a welcome relief for our precious environment and a huge financial benefit for you. The typical payback period is a year, check your utility bill to calculate your personal earnings potential!
